Have You Something You Wish To Swap?

For a limited time, or until the results are indicated by its use, the Bee-Nugget offers to conduct a free "swap" department in the Classified Ads. Anyone unable to pay for advertising, who has something in the way of produce, labor or products of any kind that he wishes to "swap" for something else he needs, will be entitled to the free use of this department. Whether you are a subscriber to the Bee-Nugget or not, make use of this department. Perhaps it will be found of value to some people who otherwise find it difficult to sell things they have for cash. Obviously, the use of this is limited to purely "swap" arrangements, but it is cheerfully given if it will help anyone in need of such service.

MARRIED DURING THE WEEK

Laughlin-Sava.

The many friends of Louis Laughlin will be surprised and pleased to hear of the announcement of his marriage January 8, 1933, in Detroit, Mich., to Miss Marusa Sava of Chicago. Mr. Laughlin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laughlin of Chehalis, who has been in Chicago for the past several years, where he is making a name for himself as a pianist. Mr. Laughlin was in Chehalis Saturday, last week end, between trains, for a short visit. He is on a tour at present with Madam Maria Kurenko, noted coloratura soprano and opera singer who is touring this country, and Mr. Laughlin is her accompanist on the piano. From here they went to Phoenix, Ariz., and on through the southern states, where concerts will be given. The tour will end March 22, when they will return to Chicago. Mrs. Louis Laughlin is a young and talented vocalist, a pupil of M. Kurenko, husband of Madam Kurenko. Mr. Laughlin has a wide circle of friends locally who congratulate him on his marriage and also his tour with Madam Kurenko.

Funeral services were held Sunday March 5, at the Mossyrock church for Mrs. Dulcena Workman, 106 years old, who was probably the oldest person living in the Pacific northwest. Rev. E. L. Whisler of Ajlune officiated, burial being in the Mossyrock cemetery on Kllickitat prairie. Her death occurred March 4 at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Rinda Faulkner, at Riffe. Mrs. Workman, who was the daughter of James and Rebecca Roberts, was born on Tug river, in Pike county, Kentucky, in 1827. Her mother is said by daughters of Mrs. Workman to also have lived to upwards of one hundred years. It is recounted by them that even at that advanced age she was able to thread needles without use of glasses, her eyesight being unimpaired.

One of the most interesting things in connection with the life of Mrs. Workman is the unusually long list of more than 267 progeny which survives her. At an early age she was married to Mike Ford, who served in the Mexican War. To them two daughters were born, both of whom, Mrs. Delilah Butler and Mrs. Winula Boser, are yet living in West Virginia and are well along in the eighties. In 1847, when 20 years old, she married Shelton Workman in West Virginia. Mr. Workman, who served in the Union army in the Civil War died about 1860.

son of Bremerton; also two sons, Henry Workman of Woodland and Jim Workman of Riffe. Relatives in the Riffe district have a record of ninety-one grandchildren, 153 great-grandchildren and fourteen of the fifth generation who live in the Pacific northwest, most of them in Lewis county. There are also a number of others in West Virginia but the exact number is unknown locally. Another daughter, Armanda, was also born to Mrs. Workman when she had reached the age of 54 years but died when twenty years of age; and one other daughter, Dora Workman, also long previously had preceded her in death.

Mrs. Workman enjoyed excellent health all her life, being blessed with a splendid physique. Rarely was she ill from any cause and up to the last her mind was alert and active. It is related of her that she had an unusual memory for dates and events in her life and she was most interesting as a conversationalist. In her earlier years she underwent many hardships, plowing in the field with oxen as a young woman and even as late as her sixtieth year. To a granddaughter, Mrs. Esther Blankenship of Ethel she related how, during Civil War days, food at times was limited to plantain weed greens, cooked without seasoning of any kind, and Mrs. Workman's comment on her

Unemployed League To Give Dance March 22

The Unemployed League of Chehalis will give a dance at the Mason hall in Chehalis Wednesday evening, March 22. Advance tickets are being sold and a large attendance is expected. The proceeds of the dance will be used to replenish the cash fund of the league which is necessary in order to carry on the work of the league where cash is essential. The league generally is urged to give support to this dance, as the league has demonstrated that it is deserving and by its existence has prevented many families from being thrown onto the streets of the county.

Various children born to her came into the world under conditions that would seem impossible to the mother of today.

Mrs. Workman never affiliated with any church until about a year ago when she accepted the Pentecostal faith and was baptized by Rev. Conley Blankenship of Riffe. However her life was an inspiration to her great circle of local offspring among whom she spent almost a quarter of a century of the last years of her life and genuine regret was theirs at her passing.

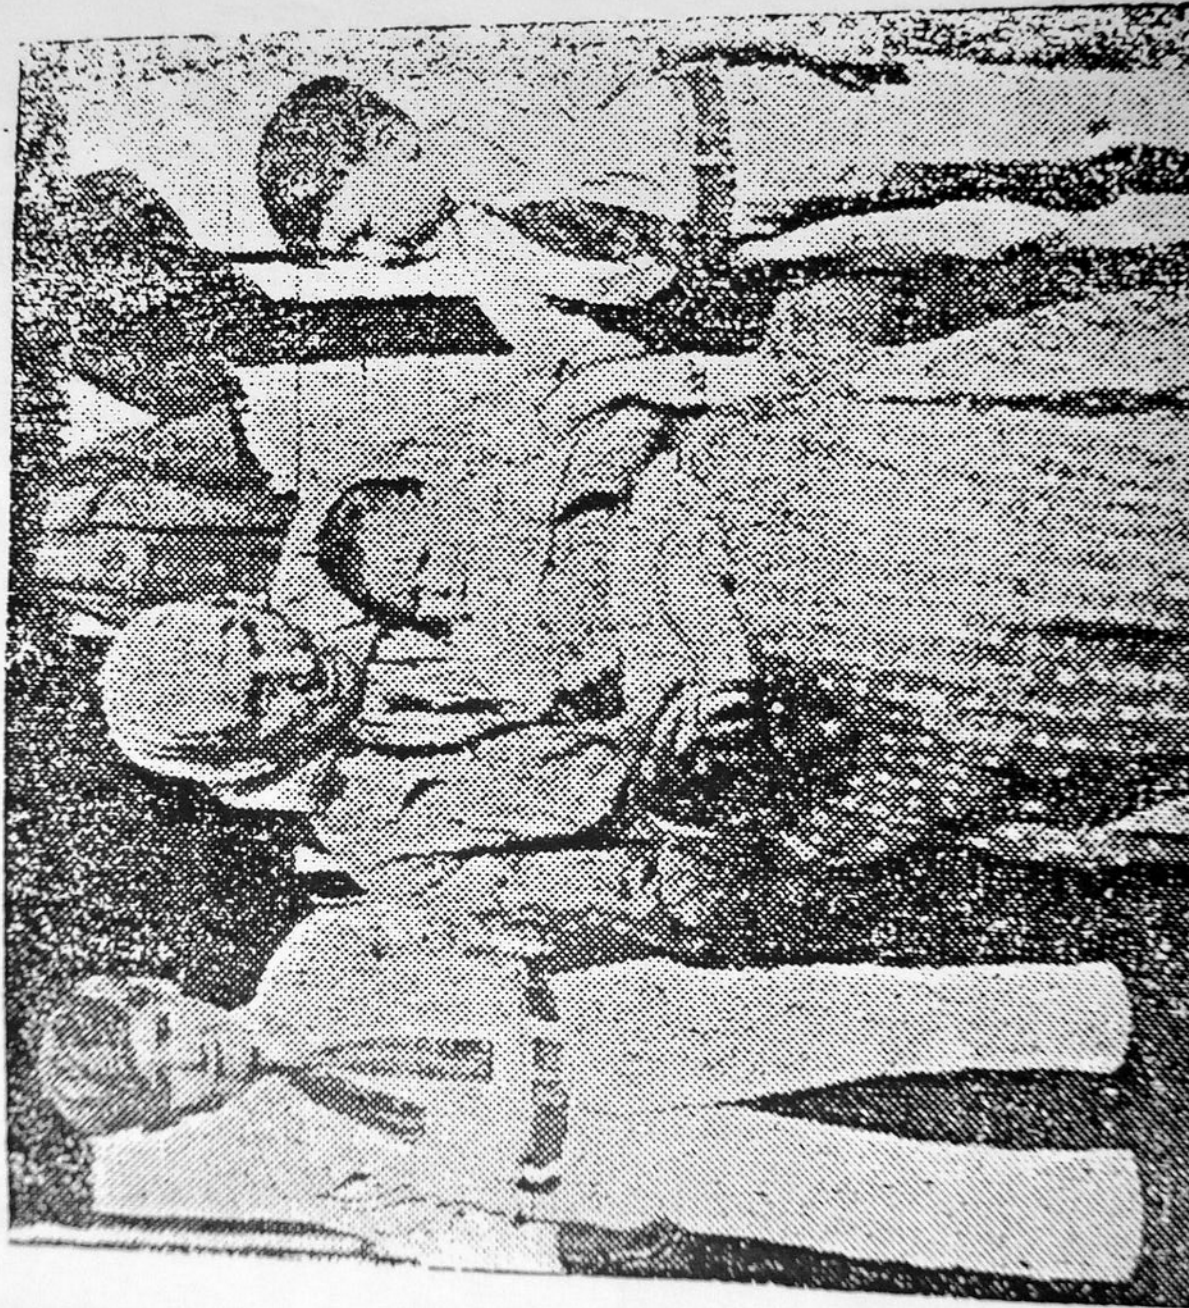

The senior play is scheduled for Tuesday, March 21. The cast is working hard and the play will be a good one.

Mrs. Bellah Butler and Mrs. Winnie Bonor, are yet living in West Virginia and are well along in the eighties. In 1847, when 20 years old, she married Shelton Workman in West Virginia. Mr. Workman, who served in the Union army in the Civil War, died about forty years ago and twenty-four years ago Mrs.
Workman came to Lewis county to make her home at Riffe with her daughter, among a long list of relatives.

In addition to the two daughters named, who live in Greenbrier county, West Virginia, where Mrs. Workman resided before coming to Lewis county, she has six other daughters living. These are Mrs. Almira Copenhaver and Mrs. Winde Blankenship of Greenbrier county, W. Va.; Mrs.
Peggy Blankenship of Ethel, Mrs. Rebecca Workman of Aftone, Mrs.
Faulkner of Riffe and Mrs. Ollie Watother daughter, Dora Workman, also long previously had preceded her in death.

Mrs. Workman enjoyed excellent health all her life, being blessed with a splendid physique. Rarely was she ill from any cause and up to the last her mind was alert and active. It is related of her that she had an unusual memory for dates and events in her life and she was most interesting as a conversationalist. In her earlier years she underwent many hardships, plowing in the field with oxen as a young woman and even as late as her sixtieth year. To a granddaughter, Mrs. Esther Blankenship of Ethel, she related how, during Civil War days, food at times was limited to plantain weed greens, cooked without seasoning of any kind. and Mrs. Workman's comment on today's conditions was that present day people really have never known what real hardships are. Various children born to her came into the world under conditions that would seem impossible to the mother of today.

Mrs. Workman never affiliated with any church until about a year ago when she accepted the Pentecostal faith and was baptized by Rev.
Conley Blankenship of Riffe. However her life was an inspiration to her great circle of local offspring among whom she spent almost a quarter of a century of the last years of her life and genuine regret was theirs at her passing.

The senior play is scheduled for Tues-
